Case studies and images callout!

We know that there is excellent work happening in our region, so help us to shout about it on our new website!

We will be collating a range of case studies celebrating good practice in the sector along with images of the beautiful venues you work in. Please forward case studies and images you would like to be considered to wmm@ironbridge.org.uk

By forwarding these Case Studies and images to us you agree to the information being shared with third parties as part of our role to share best practice; published on our website and on any other promotional material.
